

Brian Holland

Brian was born and raised in England and started life as a London “Bobby”, becoming the youngest sergeant in Britain at age 23 in 1987. Having emigrated to the US in 1992, he became a citizen in 2005. After 21 very successful years in the field of Life Settlements, Brian changed careers and entered the energy savings sector with John Daniel. In 2016, Brian and John partnered with Richard Grieves and Mike Parrish to form Sustainable Water Savings and work exclusively as the sales and marketing arm for this outstanding irrigated water savings technology. Brian brings years of sales and marketing expertise to the team.
